

ALEXANDRIA PLANS TO HOLD TRADE FETE

Three-Day Festival to Be Held
Next Month for Merchants of Surrounding Counties.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 8.—Alexandria is to have a three-day trade festival early in November for the merchants of the twenty-seven Virginia and Maryland counties which lie in the city's natural trade territory. Merchants will be invited to come here November 8, 9 and 10, and their railway fare will be paid by local dealers. While they are in the city they will be entertained by trips to the nearby points.

James T. Preston, secretary of the chamber of commerce, will mail several thousand pieces of literature concerning the event to the merchants next week. The following committee has charge of the affair: F. T. King, C. T. Nicholson, A. D. Brockett, William Jorg, and Julian Y. Williams.

H. Noel Garner, an attorney, and Miss Reulah A. Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Spencer Roberts, of Winchester, were married in Washington yesterday afternoon by the Rev. Henry Brundage. Mr. and Mrs. Garner left immediately for the South, and will be at home after November 20 at 308 North Columbus street.

Here are the Top Coats

—that have taken the place of the Balmacaan. They're the strictly correct models, and the correct material is Covert Cloth.

A few of the first-class shops are showing such coats, and their prices are $20 to $25. No other store is in line with the value we offer. Our price is $12.50.

First, you have a dressy, stylish Top Coat of a superb quality of English Covert for street or evening wear. The yoke and sleeve linings are of fine, serviceable silk, with velvet or self collars. It's a beauty!

Secondly, you have perfect protection from rain or snow, for the goods have been thoroughly cravenetted and are waterproof.

This combination is ideal. In appearance there's not the slightest indication of the raincoat, but you have its protection in the most stylish Top Coat shown in Washington.

Our Price Is $12.50
